

STORY OF BOYS WHO WERE LOST

Albert Wilson, Kam Student, Tells of the Experience During Camp.

"We got to the half-way house at 10 o'clock on Friday morning. We rested for about half an hour and started again. We had a little boy for our guide. He led the boys first to a trail and then he found it, and that it had made a mistake, so the boys had to come back. I was waiting at the crossroad, because there were two trails at this place where I was standing. When the boys returned from the other trail that led down to the stream, we all started for the other trail. There were about twenty boys. The trail was about two miles and a half long. The trail we took led us down to another stream. We got away from the crowd and were lost. We ate some pine seeds. We now reached the stream and had a drink of water. The boys decided that we should go down the stream a little ways. We started a little way and came to a large waterfall about fifty-five feet high. About thirty yards away from the falls there was a trail made by the people. Our guide said that this was the trail to Hauula. We took a rest with the rest of the boys. As we started for the trail the rest of the boys started back over the same trail, and that left only four of us. The other boys did not see the trail we took. The trail was all right for about six hundred yards, but the rest of it was pretty bad. It was covered with stones and it was hard work for us to beat our way in. So I said to the boys, 'Well, boys, I think we had better return and not try to follow it any more.'"

"As we started the little boy, who was now the last one, started, and the dirt gave way and down went the little fellow. Where he did it was about 20 feet from the trail to the bottom of the stream. The little fellow began to cry, because he thought we were going to leave him alone. The boys told me that the little fellow had fallen down the stream, so I made up my mind that I would go down for him. At first I did not have any idea of how steep the place was. When I found out that there was no possible place to climb down, I fell down. I fell into a pool of deep water. I had to swim across. I looked at the little boy. He was wet like a drowned rat. The other two boys did not want to leave him alone, so they came down with us."

"Now we all started down the stream to find a place where we could climb up. We had to go a long way before we could find a place to climb up. We followed the stream until we came to a place where we could climb up. The third fall we saw was pretty bad and at the bottom was a deep pool of water. We all slid down this on a log and got about half way when the log broke and we fell into the pool and had to swim. We were all wet like drowned rats. At the fourth fall I took a look at it and thought it was too steep for us to try. We wandered a little and found some Hawaiian bananas and some pine seeds. We filled up on these."

"The rain and fog were so thick so that it was hard work for us to tell where we were. I told the boys that we had better start for the hill and stay there and make camp. We did. It was 4 o'clock. When we were asleep the rain came around us. The night was not good, because our clothes were wet and we could not sleep comfortably. We had to shiver through half of the night. Every fifteen minutes we would get up and exercise ourselves for fear we might get pneumonia. The little boy we had to put in between us and keep him warm. The next morning we slept late and did not wake up until 8 o'clock."

"Just as we were starting back to find the trail we heard someone calling. We waited a little and heard it again. So we repeated our call and soon saw someone away on the hill. We took our undershirts and waxed at them, then immediately we heard the bugle sound. It was a pleasant call for us to hear and to feel that we were safe again. We started down the stream and met Smith. He took us back to the trail and led us back to the half-way house, from where we got lost. Lohiau took a message to Kamea telling him we were safe. Kamea told the rest of the party that we were safe and they did not need any more boys. Lohiau got back and he began to make some coffee on the fire and warm some corned beef for us. You can imagine how we ate. A. Spencer and H. Burgess came in and saw us. We all started back feeling very much relieved. We got back to camp and were three minutes late in catching the train. We went down to camp and found the tents filled with camp. Mr. Hopwood told us to rest a little and have something to eat, and after we went to pitch a tent for Mr. Horne. At 7 o'clock we went out on the beach with the girls and sat down and told them our story."

"At 9 o'clock when we were going to bed the girls gave us their overcoats."

SUGAR LEAGUE NOW PLAYING CLOSE GAMES

The Sugar League is going some and the teams are now getting in shape for the hard work of the season, last Sunday the games resulting in a win for Waimanalo over Aiea and the game between Ewa and Waipahu being called in the second on account of rain.

Next Sunday Ewa goes up against Aiea and Waimanalo against Waipahu, and, barring rain, these should both be good games.

The champions of last year now stand third on the list of teams, but before the season is ended they should be about the top-notchers again.

The standing of the league is as follows:

	P.	W.	L.	Pct.
Aiea	2	2	1	.666
Waipahu	2	1	1	.500
Ewa	2	1	1	.500
Waimanalo	3	1	2	.333

FOUR SCRAPS AT SCHOFIELD

Four good bouts were pulled off at Schofield today, Monday evening, the main event being between Terion of Troop C and Smith of Troop D, Fifth Cavalry, which resulted in a draw after ten rounds of good scrapping.

The preliminaries consisted of four rounds between Mossey of the artillery and Roney of the cavalry, which resulted in a draw decision after fast slugging; Sullivan of Troop K put Smith of Troop C to sleep in the second round of their bout; and in the third preliminary, between Kradlock of the artillery and Stannum of the cavalry, there was another draw decision after eight rounds had been fought.

We had enough overcoats to build a tent.

"We returned to school the next day and we had lots to say. The girls helped us out a great deal. My story is now ended."

"ALBERT WILSON, '11."

WILL VOTE ON DESTINATION AFTER LEAVING HARBOR

Noeau Will Be Chartered For Excursions of Trail and Mountain Club—Nobody Knows Where Going For Outing Until Vote Taken Outside.

If you want to go somewhere, sometime, join the Trail and Mountain Club excursion that leaves Honolulu tomorrow Saturday night soon.

After you get outside the harbor you will be given a chance to vote on the destination of the excursion. All that is required of you at present is to leave your name, address and three dollars in cash at the Hawaiian Trust Co. When 100 have made their deposits, the Noeau will be chartered, the date for the first excursion announced and tickets mailed to the depositors.

The first hundred get tickets, the next hundred get their money back. It may be that the first excursion will start out at 7 p. m. the day before a holiday other than a Sunday, for there will be no meals served aboard—you carry your own lunches or eat ashore.

Once outside the harbor everyone will be given a swig at an enjoyable sea-sick preventive that the club guarantees. There will be no seasickness. Also, there will be no booze. As the first excursions are intended to be taken as to where the vessel shall land her passengers. Already there are those in favor of Nihoa—a terra incognita to most Honoluluans, while others are for a day on Kauai or Maui. Still others wish to land at Lanai or Molokai, but no one will know his destination until after the boat has left the harbor behind. Friends ashore can keep guessing until the return.

After the vote has been taken, the mattresses will be spread on deck under shelter and all hands ordered to turn in. The staterooms will be reserved for ladies, if it is decided that fair trappers are to join the excursion.

At daylight the Noeau will send her passengers ashore, unless there are those who wish to remain aboard and cruise around the island selected for the day's outing. At 7 in the evening, after dinner ashore, the Noeau will begin her return trip to Honolulu, arriving there before breakfast in the morning.

The Noeau excursion will be the first of a series of short cruises contemplated by the Trail and Mountain Club, the Pan-Pacific Tourist Bureau and the Hilo-Around-the-Pacific Club. The idea of the combination is to teach people to know Hawaii first and then see the rest of the Pacific. On the return of Organizer W. A. Bryan from Laysan Island, a series of interisland cruises will be planned, and if these meet with success a trip to Midway and Laysan Islands will be arranged, and later a cruise to Tahiti and the South Sea Islands.

Aggressive outdoor promotion work is to be taken up by a number of the allied civic and outing organizations of Hawaii, and the interisland cruise is but the beginning. After three years' work in the direction of securing lower interisland rates, the Territorial Transportation Committee, or Pan-Pacific Tourist Bureau, as it is now renamed, has been pronounced a $25 cruise rate around Hawaii, including a visit to Kauai, Maui and Hawaii. Further, a $19 rate from Hilo to the Volcano and return, with a day at the Volcano House, has been promised, while Manager Field of the Maui Hotel, Waiohale, will cooperate to the extent of operating a $15 trip to Haleakala and return, including a day at his hotel.

The Pan-Pacific Tourist Bureau can advertise broadcast to the world that it can offer a cruise of all the Hawaiian Islands, including visits to the earth's largest active and extinct volcanoes, all for the sum of $50.

This is the kind of home promotion work that the bureau and its associates believe in. The arrangements for the Noeau for frequent excursions to the islands are merely to accustom both tourists and Honoluluans to know Hawaii, that they may spread by letter and by word of mouth the story of its beauties to all the world.

COMISKEY INSURES ALL OF HIS BASEBALL SQUAD

CHICAGO, Apr. 5.—In an effort to protect himself from loss of money as well as services, Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the Chicago Americans, has had each player insured.

This plan has been under consideration by Comiskey ever since Sullivan was injured in California, and when Blackburn was put out of the game with a bad knee in Texas, it settled the question with the Southside magnate. Insurance secured covers injury, illness or death from any cause.

The policies taken out by Comiskey call for $5000 in case of death from accident or illness. In case a player is unable to play owing to illness or accident, President Comiskey will receive $25 per week as long as the man is out of the game.
